

PPP jury instructions for M1 students - December

10 guidelines for the January PPP juries:

Preparation

- 1) Review PPP class slides & jury information on Moodle here (final timetable details, Zoom links etc. will be posted a few days before D-day) : <https://moodle-n7.inp-toulouse.fr/course/view.php?id=3029>.
- 2) Check your timeslot and corresponding Zoom link posted on Moodle. Be aware that your timeslot may change slightly at the last minute: remember to re-check your timeslot & jury members before D-day.
- 3) As recommended by HR experts in October, consider a neutral or « business casual » dress code (for an international perspective: <http://www.bbc.com/travel/story/20111118-business-casual-attire-around-the-world>). Be mindful that jury panel members include industrial partners from a range of backgrounds.
- 4) A few days before your timeslot, rehearse your PPP presentation. Review your jury member profiles.

On D-day

- 5) Connect 20 minutes before your timeslot, wait in the waiting room (if the student scheduled before you is absent, you take their timeslot). Open all the documents you need. Be ready to share BEFORE you leave the waiting room in order to save time. Each 20 minute slot = 6 minutes presentation + 10 minutes for questions.
- 6) At the beginning of your PPP presentation, paste your ePortfolio link (with easy access to your PPP tab including your CV, job ad, letter, internship reports, and any other relevant documents) in the Zoom chat.
- 7) Share your PDF-PPT slides (7 slides max.) on Zoom and deal quickly with any technical problems. Remember your slides can be all in English or all in French. If you would like to give your presentation in English, you ASK the panel's permission (BEFORE you start your presentation). Be prepared to adapt to different panel members' requests.
- 8) You respond to questions in the language employed by the jury member. Be ready to switch from French to English and from English to French.
- 9) If there is a problem (technical, timing, etc.), you must respect the jury's decision and keep calm and collected. You remain polite and courteous at all times. You are N7 ambassadors : your role is to shine, promote your profile and your competence and potential in hard and soft skills.

After the jury

- 10) Your completed evaluation feedback will be available for you to consult and discuss shortly. Your feedback timeslot will be confirmed at the end of January.

Best regards,

Team PPP
